

Most Deprived Reflection on Income Inequality: Sample Economic Status Cards

12 year old child, one of three children in a single parent home. Income $30,000/year (below poverty line) 7 tokens	Family of 4. Income $31,000/year (below poverty line) 7 tokens
1 person household. Income $55,000/year 11 tokens	Single person household. No income 5 tokens
4 person family. Income $85,000/year 10 tokens	Married couple (65+). Income $21,000/year (below poverty line) 6 tokens
Retired, no pension. Spouse in work force. Income $45,000/year 9 tokens	Single parent, 1 child. Income $65,000/year 10 tokens
Single person family; construction worker, currently laid off Income $30,000/year 8 tokens	Homeless 5 tokens
International jet-setter 13 tokens	International student. No job 9 tokens

Most Deprived Reflection on Income Inequality: Sample Economic Status Cards (page 2)

Young professional, newlywed. Income $75,000/year 10 tokens	Single parent family, 1 child. Income $60,000/year 10 tokens
University student. Summer employment only 10 tokens	Senior (65+), pension and retirement savings plan. Spouse still in work force. 11 tokens
Graduate student, full funding. Part time employment 11 tokens	University student, full scholarship. Summer employment. 11 tokens
2 person family. Income $70,000/year. 11 tokens	4 person family. Income $120,000/year 12 tokens
3 person family. Income $110,000/year 12 tokens	Independently wealthy. 13 tokens
Single person household. Income $35,000/year 9 tokens	Single parent family, college student. Full time job. Income $40,000/year 8 tokens